The bi-annual, peer-reviewed Journal of Contemporary Drama in English focuses on issues in contemporary Anglophone dramatic literature and theatre performance. It renegotiates the understanding of contemporary aesthetics of drama and theatre by treating contemporary dramatic texts (i.e. post-1989).

For issue 8.2 (2020), we invite papers that engage in the analysis of plays and also touch upon historical, political, formal, theoretical and methodological aspects of contemporary drama, theatre, and performance.

Essays should be no longer than 8,000 words (including notes and bibliography) and should be formatted according to MLA style (7th edition, 2009).

Deadline for issue 8.2 is 1 June 2020.
